It is hereby stipulated, by and between the parties that the hearing for Ms. Chavez' change of plea be continued from Friday, August 17, 2007, at 9:00 a.m. to Friday, September 14, 2007, at 9:00 a.m.

It is also stipulated that the period from August 17, 2007, to September 14, 2007, shall be excluded from the calculation of time in which the trial of the above captioned matter must commence pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, Title 18 U.S.C. Section 3161(c). Section 3161(h)(8)(A) and (B)(iv) allows for the exclusion of time because the interests of justice are served by granting a continuance.

Such continuance is required because documents from the defendant's supervised release violation out of the District of Arizona have not arrived in this district yet.¹

DATED: August 20, 2007

Respectfully submitted,

United States District Judge

¹ Government counsel was unclear regarding the logistics of getting the defendant's supervised release violation transferred to this district. Moreover, defense counsel has been in trial for several weeks and was unable to meet with his client to obtain her signature which was necessary to get the documents sent here. The government apologizes for the delay. Government counsel believed that discussions with the AUSA in the District of Arizona would suffice in terms of packaging the matters.
